UNIVERSITY MIXER A HOWLING SUCCESS

Musical Program and Address by Stockton Heard by Hall Packed to the Doors.

G. W. PEP GREATLY REVIVED

A program of highest merit and an overflowing hall made the informal Arts and Science "get-together" party held last Friday evening in the Assembly Hall of the Arts and Sciences building a grand success. Over 250 members of the faculty and the student body and their friends, as the guests of the Women's University Club, listened to an address by President Stockton, and enjoyed an excellent concert afforded by the combined musical clubs of the university. Refreshments were served following the concert in the Girls' Study Room. Many also stayed to the dancing held later in the Assembly Hall. Plenty of G. W. pep was uncorked and a revival of the old days was seen to be approaching.

President Stockton spoke informally, touching upon several topics of vital interest to the University. He was thoroughly in sympathy with the object of the gathering and said that after a study of the subject he was sure that co-education was beneficial to the students. He commented upon the fact that 75 per cent of our students are self-supporting and stated that a comparison of the examinations of the Law School showed that higher grades were made by the evening classes than by the morning classes. He attributed this to the fact that the evening students were paying for their tuition with the money that they had earned by their own labor. Washington, he said, is an ideal place for a university because it is the capital of the nation, and an atmosphere of good influence radiates here. He warmly congratulated the work of the musicians and expressed a hope that it would flourish and continue.

Miss Elsa Weber presided and had charge of the program. A section of the George Washington University Orchestra initiated the musical program of the evening with a selection. The section was composed of Messrs. Frank Cheney, president and trombonist; David Davis, director and cornetist; I. Semsker, cornetist; A. Kaminsky, violinist; M. Herzmark, secretary and pianist.

The male quartette of the Men's Glee Club, consisting of Messrs. L. W. Getchell, T. W. Rhoads, H. F. Enlows, and J. L. Mitchell with Prof. Otis Swett at the piano rendered that old glee club favorite "The Village Choir." As an encore they sang Mr. Terry's school song.

Mr. William H. Tonne, accompanied by Prof. Swett, pleased with a saxophone solo.

The gathering had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Cornelia Stockton Trout, daughter of Admiral Stockton, play upon the piano a waltz which she had composed and named for the University. This pleasing composition, it was stated, will be arranged shortly for the orchestra. Mrs. Trout also played a selection from Chopin.

The sweet combination of violin, cello and piano was heard with appreciation in a trio consisting of Miss Beth Wilbur who played the violin, Miss Vere Cory with the cello and Mrs. Edwina Doing at the piano.

The Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Ruth Ayler, rendered several selections with more than usual success.

The musical program ended with Hawaiian music, a duet by Messrs. Leo C. Terry and Harry K. Gilman.

PYRAMID INITIATION AND BANQUET HELD

Neophytes Inducted and Officers for the Coming Year Selected last Monday.

McNEMAR HONORARY MEMBER

Professor Leslie Cleveland McNemar and ten prominent members of the junior and senior classes were inducted in the mysteries of the Pyramid Honor Society at its annual spring initiation held at the Hotel Powhatan last Monday evening. The initiation ceremony and the banquet which followed were attended by a large number of alumni, including several of the founders and former presidents of the Society. The initiates were James Harold Collins, Julian Wallace Cunningham, John Eugene Folsom, Herman August Kuehn, Lunsford Loving Hamner, James Francis Pierce, Herbert Percy Ramsey, Homer Tipton Shaver, Melville Ralph Walton, William L. Wannlass.

At the close of the banquet the officers of the Society for the coming year were elected, the following slate being the result: President, Erwin Harsch; Vice-President, Shirley Penrose Jones; Secretary-Treasurer, Herbert Percy Ramsey; Historian, Alvin McCreary Brown. Harsch of the Senior class of the Engineering School was elected to the Pyramid last fall; Jones of the Law School was elected a year ago and has since his election to the Society been the Secretary-Treasurer of the organization; Ramsey is one of the initiates and Brown of the Law School is the retiring President.

The Toastmaster of the banquet was Alvin McCreary Brown, president of the Society, who delivered the address of greeting to the initiates. Toasts were responded to by Ernst Otto Schreiber and David A. Baer, for the alumni, Prof. McNemar for the faculty, Shirley P. Jones for the active Nummulites and James F. Pierce for the new members.

While as a member of the faculty he was not eligible to active membership in the Society, Professor McNemar has consistently stood for the ideals which it seems to promote and his election to honorary membership in the Pyramid was a fitting recognition of his untiring zeal in behalf of the University and student interests.

The Pyramid Honor Society has for its purpose the fostering of student activities by uniting in closer bonds those men of the senior class who have attained preeminence along those lines. As a result its membership comprises the leaders in all branches of student activities. "W" men, managers of athletic teams, editors and business managers of student publications, intercollegiate debaters and leaders in other interests. As the membership is limited not all of those eligible can be elected but only those most active. It is a hopeful sign of the reawakening of interest in student activities at the University that there were many more than ten eligibles to be considered and it is to be hoped that such a state of affairs will continue in the future. It should be the honest ambition of every undergraduate to "make the Pyramid"

RIFLE PRACTICE BEGINS MAY 5

National Guard Range at Congress Heights to be Used.

The Rifle Team will commence practice on the afternoon of June fifth and will continue every afternoon but Sundays until June fifteenth when the match will be shot off. The National Guard Rifle Range which will be the scene of the practice is one of the best in this part of the country. It is located at Congress Heights.

A number of valuable acquisitions have been made by the team since the last announcement, among them being N. B. Crain of the College of Engineering, who was one of the crack shots on the Naval Militia.

SINGLE TAX VOTE RETAKEN THIS WEEK

Scheme Like That of Other Schools Presented to Students by McNemar.

LARGER VOTE DESIRED

The university will take up this week, for the second time a referendum vote on the desirability of an annual tax of five dollars. This tax is to be used for the maintenance of Athletics and the paper.

Of those who voted the first time 95 per cent were in favor of the tax but as only about one-third of the enrolled students voted, it is deemed advisable to obtain a wider expression of opinion.

The original suggestion was that there be an assessment of three dollars to be used for the support of athletics, the paper and the yearbook, but Prof. McNemar, director of athletics, has since made a study of the systems of all the leading educational institutions in the country and has reached the conclusion that the proposed tax should not be less than five dollars per student per year.

After the referendum, if the board of trustees fails to approve of the plan, Prof. McNemar has announced that he will resign from the position as faculty director of athletics, as he feels that the only means of maintaining sports in this university is by the proposed subsidy. Therefore, the future of athletics in this institution depends upon the decision of the board.

DATES CHANGED FOR ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS

The dates of the annual entrance examinations which also include the competitive examinations for the seven scholarships awarded to graduates of the Washington High Schools have been changed in order not to conflict with the Annual Competitive Drill of the High School Cadet Regiment. Instead of being held from Monday, May 24, to Thursday, May 27, inclusive, as stated in the catalogue, they will take place on Friday and Saturday, May 28 and 29, and Tuesday and Wednesday, June 1 and 2.

As usual it is expected that there will be a large number of candidates for the Kendall scholarship and the six University scholarships which are awarded upon examination to the seven graduates of the local high schools who obtain the highest averages in the competitive examinations covering nine and one-half units of high school work. The units upon which the examinations will be given are on the following specified subjects: English (three units); one other language (two units); the remaining two units will be in language, history, mathematics, physics, chemistry, biology, as the candidate shall elect.

KING URGES NEED OF LAW SCHOOL BUILDING

Many Other Speeches at Semi-Centennial Smoker and Banquet of the Law School, April 30 and May 1.

250 OLD GRADS MAKE MERRY

The semi-centennial celebration of the foundation of the National University Law School was celebrated by two highly successful functions, the annual reunion, smoker and business meeting of the George Washington University Law School Alumni at the University Club held on the evening of April 30th, and the combined gathering of the undergraduates and alumni of the University Law School at the Third Annual Law School Dinner at Rauscher's on May 1.

At the alumni reunion it was pointed out by Dean Everett Fraser, that the law school has made rapid strides in point of membership in the face of more stringent requirements for entrance. It now ranks sixth in the Association of American Law Schools, he said.

The alumni was urged, by Dean Fraser, to establish an employment bureau for the benefit of the students who wished to attend the school at night. He said that unless they could obtain employment under the Government it was difficult for them to get positions elsewhere.

William B. King, presiding officer, expressed a wish that the alumni might be instrumental in the erection of a law school building, on account of the fact that the school is now doing "double duty" having classes day and night. To use his own words—"the law school is now occupying crowded, rented, quarters and it seems wrong that this law school, which is doing such good work, should not have a home of its own. I do not believe that handsome, architectural cation, but a nice building is good and produces a good effect on the public."

A. G. Mills, a member of the class of '69, and at present a resident of New York City, stated that he believed nothing more useful to the young man than a study of law, even though it be studied without the view of practicing it. Mr. Mills gave the names of a number of his classmates, whom the training had greatly helped, although they had never practiced law. The name which headed his list and which ranks foremost was the late H. W. Dennison, who, for many years, was the honored adviser to the Japanese government.

After Mr. Mills concluded his address, Mr. King read a number of telegrams received from former students, now residing in other cities, expressing regrets that they could not be present. One of these read was from J. P. DeMattos, now mayor of Bellington, Washington. The election of officers was followed by a buffet supper.

The following evening, law students present and past ranging from white haired leaders of the bench and bar to the present graduating class, gathered, nearly 250 strong, at Rauscher's to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the foundation of the law college.

Dean Fraser, toastmaster of the banquet, told of the successes of the G. W. U. students in passing the local bar examinations. He claimed that 95 per cent of its candidates passed whereas as high as 35 per cent of failures has been made by all other candidates.

William B. King also spoke at this function and took for his topic the Editor Pierce Turns Out High Class Book For Law School.

The Res Gestae, the Law School year book is the first of the three annuals to make its appearance, some copies having been delivered last Friday and all subscribers having since received their books.

The book covers one hundred and twelve pages and is printed in the familiar brown ink on buff paper, bound in heavy blue cloth, gold stamped with the University seal.

An interesting history of the fifty years of the Law School illustrated with pictures of several of the more famous former faculty members and of the various buildings occupied by the school at different periods forms a noteworthy part of the book.

The Res Gestae is dedicated to Dean Everett Fraser who has directed the Law School during its Semi-centennial year.

Mr. Pierce who has both managed the business end and edited the book is to be congratulated on getting out a volume excellent in every way. It is priced at $1.50 and a few copies unsubscribed for still remain for sale.

HOSPITAL BENEFIT ON MAY 24

Board of Lady Managers to Patronize "The Girl of My Dreams" at the Columbia.

The Board of Lady Managers of the George Washington University Hospital is making plans for the biggest theater benefit for the Hospital they have ever given.

Arrangements have been made with the Columbia Theater to make Monday evening, May 24, a veritable George Washington night. "The Girl of My Dreams" will be the offering of the Columbia Musical Comedy Company and in this production which had such a long run in New York and Chicago they will be seen at their best. A large company will interpret the many catchy musical numbers.

This benefit is held for an especially worthy purpose and it is believed that friends of the University, especially those from the Medical School, will respond in large numbers. Take the girl of your dreams to see "The Girl of My Dreams"—you will both enjoy it. Tickets can be secured from the offices of the University or Mrs. Wm. Cline Borden, Chairman, 2306 Tracy Place. Prices 25c to $1.00.

and it should be his incentive to do all in his power self-sacrificingly for his alma mater.

The newly initiated members of the Pyramid are truly representative, coming from all departments of the University and being prominent in every branch of student life.

James Harold Collins is a member of the Senior Medical class and is editor of the Caduceus, the Medical Department year book. Before entering George Washington he attended Bowdoin, where he graduated with distinction. He is a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Julian Wallace Cunningham has been business manager of the Hatchet during the past year. During the previous year he was manager of the track team. He is a Junior in Columbian College and is a member of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity.

John Eugene Folsom, of the Junior Medical class, is business manager of the Caduceus.

Herman August Kuehn has won his "W" as a member of the Varsity basketball team for several years, playing at center. He graduates this year from the College of Engineering.

Lunsford Loving Hamner, of the Senior Law class, came to George Washington from the University of Virginia where he took a prominent part in athletics. During the past two years he has played on the Varsity basketball squad and was awarded the "G. W." both seasons. He is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

James Francis Pierce has distinguished himself by publishing the "Res Gestae", the Law School year-book almost singlehanded. He is president of the Senior Law class and has just completed a very successful term of office as president of the newly organized Legal Aid Society. He graduated from the engineering department of the University of Michigan and is a member of Tau Beta Pi honorary engineering fraternity.

Herbert Percy Ramsey has been prominent in student activities throughout his University career. He was editor-in-chief of the Cherry Tree of 1914 and is one of the editors of the Hatchet this year. He has also been president of the Y. M. C. A. and is an active worker in the Glee Club. He is a member of the Junior Class of Columbian College.

Homer Tipton Shaver has starred on the basketball floor for the last two seasons at the position of guard. During the past season he captained the most successful team which has represented the University in many years. He is also President of the Athletic Association. He is a member of the Junior Law class and of the Sigma Chi fraternity.

Melville Ralph Walton is president of the Senior class of Columbian College and also of the Association of Class Presidents. He has been very energetic in publishing the "Periscope", the Arts and Sciences year-book, of which he is business manager. As a member of the Hatchet staff and an officer of the Chemical Society he has boosted these activities greatly. He is a member of the Alpha Beta Phi fraternity.

William Lawrence Wanlass, of the Senior Class of Columbian College, is editor-in-chief of the "Periscope." He has also been active in the Columbian Debating Society.

nationalism of Washington.

Rear Admiral Charles H. Stockton spoke of the development of Washington as the greatest of capitals. He also paid tribute to the high type of young men entering the university, stating that 91 per cent pay their own expenses.

Following Admiral Stockton, the speakers were John W. Davis, solicitor general of the United States; Chief Justice Walter Clark of North Carolina, and Shirley Penrose Jones, for the student body.

INTERFRAT BASEBALL NOT TO BE PLAYED

Interfraternity Association Also Plans to have Relative Scholarship of Fraternities Tabulated.

BOWLING TROPHY AWARDED

The best year that the Interfraternity Association has yet had came to a close at the meeting held Wednesday evening, May 5, at the Phi Chi (medical) fraternity house, R. T. Haskell acting as host.

A special committee to consider changing the name and form of the organization of the association reported that the association was weak, in that it has no authority with either the school or the chapters. It was suggested that the association be reorganized giving it greater powers, making it the central voice of the fraternities and the channel for all intercourse between the faculty and the individual chapters. This committee will make an extended report at the meeting of next year.

No baseball schedule will be arranged between the chapters as there would be nine teams entered and the season would extend several months into vacation. The individual chapters will challenge each other and arrange the games themselves. The award of the bowling championship and plaque to Sigma Chi was announced, and the schedule pronounced so successful that it will be repeated next year.

The chairman of the dance committee, Russell L. DuVal, reported that the "prom" recently held in addition to being a social success was successful financially.

It was voted to send a circular letter to members of Congress, the Senate, the Supreme Court, and the Cabinet to learn how many are members of Greek Letter Fraternities.

It was also decided to request the Secretary of the University to ascertain the scholarship averages of the the Hatchet and for comparison with each other and with the fraternity records of the past.

All but three delegates were present. Vice-President Jeffries presided. President Alden Wheeler having left the city. The Treasurer reported a balance on hand after paying all debts. The next meeting will be held October 6 at Sigma Chi's house.

ENGINEERING SOCIETY VISITS POWER PLANT

Union Station Electric Generating Shop and Ice Factory Visited.

LAST MEETING AFTER JUNE 1

The Engineering Society visited the power plant at the Union Station on Wednesday, May 5th. The Superintendent of the plant, who conducted the party, showed the "to be" engineers over the plant from the coal and ash handling apparatus to the large turbo-generators which generate the alternating current used for the lighting of the incandescent lamps in the Station and furnish the current necessary to run the Brush-arc machines used on the arc lighting system with which the railroad yard is equipped. They were also shown the ice making plant which produces the 40 tons of ice per day used to fill the water coolers and refrigerators of all cars leaving the Union Station. All together the trip was one of the best the Engineering Society has made, as they saw a plant that is efficiency from start to finish.

The final meeting of the Society will be had immediately after the close of school at a place and on a date to be announced in a later issue of the Hatchet and on the bulletin boards. Every member of the Society should make it a point to be present at this meeting and help dispose of the "eats" which the Entertainment Committee has promised to furnish in abundance for this occasion.

CADUCEUS TO APPEAR SOON

Expected To Be Ready On May 20.

If it were possible for a seed from the "Cherry Tree" to grow and develop into a fitting likeness of its parent, then "The Caduceus," the year book of the Medical, Dental and Nurses' Training Schools, has made a possibility, a reality.

The 200 page volume will tell about everything and everybody concerning the three above-named schools. It is a veritable "Who's Who, etc.", and one cannot well afford to miss the treats in the way of histories, witty write-ups, jokes and jolts that are promised. The book is dedicated to the late Dr. A. F. A. King, for many years Professor of Obstetrics. Pictures of all the members of the Faculty of the three schools will appear together with a complete history of each. Aside from the write-ups, etc., there will be forty full page illustrations and twenty-five cartoons.

Three hundred subscriptions have been received and it is expected to issue the book by the 20th of May. Those who have subscribed but have not paid the subscription price, $2.00, will do so at once if they expect to receive their copies of the book.

A HOWLING SUCCESS

Struck by the sweetness of the minor strain of the music, the audience encircled the players again and again. After the musical program, the officers of the Women's University Club received the guests and ample refreshments were served in the Girls' Study Room. During the reception the chairs were cleared from the floor of the Assembly Hall, and afterwards, as many couples as the floor would

DEPARTMENTAL NOTES.

ALUMNI

Word has been received at the University of the death of Col. Edward S. Fowler, LL. B., '72, in New York City last Sunday. Col. Fowler has been prominent in legal, military and political circles for many years. He was born in Newburgh, N. Y., and following his graduation from the Law School he became a practicing attorney. In 1898 he served as major in the U. S. Volunteers in the Spanish-American War and since that time he has been a colonel in the National Guard of the State of New York. An evidence of the fact that he was highly esteemed by men of prominence was his appointment to the position of Collector of Customs of the Port of New York by President Roosevelt, which position he held until 1909.

Harry G. Beneman, C. C. '14, formerly editor of the Hatchet visited friends at the University recently.

The second and final ballot for the nomination of alumni members of the Board of Trustees has been sent out by Dean Howard L. Hodgkins, Secretary of the Alumni Association, to the eight hundred alumni qualified to vote, i. e., graduates of three or more years standing who have paid their membership fee to the Association.

This second ballot contains the names of the six candidates who received the highest number of votes on the first ballot. Arranged in the chronological order of their degrees they are: Theodore W. Noyes, A. M. '77; Melville Church, LL. B. '77; Joseph Stewart, LL. B. '84; Dr. D. Olin Leech, M. D., '87; Ernest L. Thurston, C. E. '93; and Stanton J. Peelle, A. B. '99. From these six, three will be selected to fill the vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of two trustees and the death of Mr. Aldis B. Browne. The sealed ballots will not be opened until May 31.

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE

Mrs. William Allen Wilbur and her son William are in a sanatorium at Watkins Glen, N. Y., recovering from severe attacks of rheumatism.

Oliver M. Olsen, formerly a student in the College, has gone to Cornell University to fill a position on the financial staff of the newly organized College of Agriculture.

Miss Lois Pierce of the Freshman class has presented the Girls' Study Room with a felt cushion, done in the colors of the University and beautifully embroidered.

"THE PERISCOPE" will be out tomorrow. Those who have not subscribed should do so at once in order to insure their getting books. A limited number of the books will be bound in cloth. Any one who wishes to obtain one of these must speak for it at once.

Paul G. Russell left New York last Friday for Brazil, Uruguay, Paraguay and Argentina on a botanical expedition for the Carnegie Institution. He will be in South America for six months.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Dean Hodgkins will be the delegate of the University to the annual convention of the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education which will be held at the Iowa State College, Ames, Ia., from June 22 to 25. Besides the regular meetings of the Association for individual members there will be special consultations of the representatives of the institutions of learning which will discuss problems peculiar to themselves.

The sympathy of his classmates is extended to Mr. Fred Deck of the freshman class, in his recent bereavement.

M. E. and E. E. Juniors made practical inspection of the following power plants; Howard University; U. S. Navy Yard and Union Station.

Roger D. Wharton is still suffering with a badly sprained ankle. With the aid of a cane he is able to come to his classes.

Mr. Doten took his students in sanitary engineering on an inspection tour yesterday and visited the following places: Sewage disposal station; Pumping station; Filtration plant; 16th Street Reservoir; Rock Creek Park and the U. S. Bureau of Standards.

MEDICAL SCHOOL

Dr. Eugene D. Supplee, '14, Resident Physician to the University Hospital, has resigned to enter private practice. He has been appointed on the medical staff of the Dupont Powder Co., at City Point, Va. Dr. Arthur McCray is acting in the capacity of Resident at present.

Miss Mary W. Glascock, Superintendent of Nurses and Principal of the Training School for Nurses, has been granted six months leave of absence. During this period she will take an administrative course in nursing at the Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, Mass., one of the finest institutions of its kind in the country. Miss Ruth E. Dorsett, Head Nurse, will be in charge of the Training School during Miss Glascock's absence.

Carroll E. Bingham, '15, has been Hospital.

The roster of the new Board of Medical Supervisors of the District of Columbia is as follows: Edgar P. Copeland, M. D., Chairman; H. H. Kerr, C. M., M. D.; Edgar Snowden, M. D.; R. D. Adams, M. D., and Edward H. Reede, M. D. It is interesting to note that the first three named are members of the Faculty of the Medical School.

Due to a typographical error, it was stated in these columns in the last issue of the Hatchet that Dr. Lyon, recently appointed Professor of Bacteriology and Pathology, graduated M. D. from the University in 1912. He received his degree in 1902.

The American Pediatric Society will meet at Lakewood, N. J., May 25-27. Dr. George N. Acker, Professor of Pediatrics and Clinical Professor of Medicine, is President.

Dr. William C. Woodward, Professor of Medical Jurisprudence, recently addressed the New York Academy of Medicine at a meeting called for the purpose of urging that the Quarantine Station at the Port of New York, now in the hands of the New York state government, be transferred to the United States Health Service. The subject of his remarks was "The Menace of Inadequate Quarantine and What an Efficient Quarantine Means to the Entire Country."

E. Clarence Rice, '16, has been appointed Extern at the Garfield Memorial Hospital.

Examinations in the Sophomore Class began on May 13 and will end on June 4.

The Sophs are making plans for a big banquet to be held on the night of June 4. This will mark the wind-up of the school year and it is predicted that the occasion will be the banner event of the year. There will be "something doin'."

TOM MURRAY TAKEN HOME

Tom Murray, who has been suffering from a severe attack of Bright's disease at the Georgetown Hospital, has been removed by the members of his family to his home in Boston, his convalescence having advanced to a stage where such a course was not unwise.

WITH THE GREEKS.

The Washington Alumni Chapter of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity elected officers last Saturday night at the chapter house, 1810 N street northwest. The following were chosen: President, R. L. Matthews; vice-president, E. L. Bullock, Jr.; treasurer, Louis C. Taylor; secretary, Wallace Ashby. Blaine Mallan is chairman of the entertainment committee, with Richard D. Daniels, Theodore Block and Mr. Bullock as assistants.

A meeting of the building association of the chapter was also held, at which Mr. Daniels was chosen president, and Joseph E. Haley, Rhesa Norris and Bruce Bielaski, trustees.

It was announced that the local chapter will be represented at the Carnea conference of the fraternity to be held at San Francisco during August, and delegate will be chosen next month. The meetings were followed by a smoker.

Mr. Brusco, a Sigma Nu from the Colorado School of Mines, was a guest yesterday at the Alpha Beta Phi House.

The following men were recently initiated into Kappa Psi: Howard H. Montgomery, '17; Robert J. Gordon, '16; J. E. Folsom, '16, Mario Julia, '16.

Kappa Psis and some of their friends enjoyed two stag parties during the last month and are now planning the yearly final smoker in honor of the Senior Kappa Psi men.

Phi Alpha gave a very enjoyable smoker, Sunday evening, May 9. Between smokes athletic exhibitions furnished exciting entertainment. The principal speakers were Dr. Abram Simon and Professor Mott-Smith.

Alpha Beta Phi held a farewell party on Thursday night, May 6, at the fraternity house for Harley L. Mzingo of the Law School and Paul G. Russell of the Columbian College. Mzingo left last Monday evening for the Philippines where he will have charge of one of the stations of the Coast and Geodetic Survey for the next three years. Russell left for a six months trip to South America.

Tomorrow night Alpha Beta Phi will entertain the Sigma Kappa sorority at a dance.

HARSCH ELECTED SENIOR MARSHAL

Walton and Pierce Made Assistants by Class Presidents' Association.

SECOND ELECTION HELD

At the regular May meeting of the Association of Class Presidents in the Assembly Hall of the Arts and Sciences Building Wednesday night, the election of the senior marshalls which took place originally April 26, 1915, was reconsidered, with the result that Erwin Harsch, College of Engineering, was elected grand marshal of the senior classes, Melville R. Walton, Columbian College, first assistant marshal, and James F. Pierce, Law School, second assistant marshal.

The fact that complaint had been made that unauthorized proxies were used in the original election occasioned the reconsideration. After due discussion the former election was held to be invalid, and the members proceeded to cast a second vote for the office of grand marshal, which was the only office contested.

The three men elected to these offices have been very prominent in student activities, and are fitted in every way to represent the senior classes of the University in the last offices within their gift.

Erwin Harsch is well known for his activities throughout the whole school. Melville Walton, has been twice president of his class, member of the Alchemists, business manager of the Periscope, and has been exceedingly active in the Chemical Society, having held several offices therein, and has never failed to respond to the call for University spirit.

James F. Pierce, has been the managing editor of the "Res Gestae", the Law School Yearbook, and was the chairman of the Legal Aid Society. His interest and self-sacrifice in the cause of the advance of the University have been marked and undiminished.

Harry H. Semmes of George Washington, the only entrant from here in the annual meet of the South Atlantic Athletic Association held at Homewood, Baltimore, on Saturday, tied for the second place in the pole vault, scoring 2½ points for the University. The meet was won by the University of Virginia, who walked off with 66 points, its nearest competitor being V. P. I. with 24. Four athletic records were broken in this meet, and one record was equaled.

At the meeting of the South Atlantic Athletic Association held on Saturday night, Professor L. C. McNemar was elected the Secretary of the Association. It was largely through the efforts of Professor McNemar that George Washington became a member of the South Atlantic last fall.
